Inside the Left's Plan to Declare America's Government Illegitimate and Stage a Coup

THE BOTTOM LINE

Thousands of leaked transcripts describe a plan to provoke a federal crisis, declare the government illegitimate, and rewrite the Constitution.

In the final weeks before the 2026 midterms, researcherJennica Pounds, aka DataRepublican, began releasing what she describes as thousands of transcripts and hundreds of recordings. They come from inside a network of former USAID democracy officials, retired national-security leaders, protest organizers, and constitutional "reform" activists.

The end game is not secret. America's largest socialist organization has written it into its official program. What the recordings add is the alleged operating plan and time line for getting there.

It isn't a "someday thing". It's planned for this November when they can execute their wrecking ball to our Constitution and governmental foundations. This requires strategic prayer and action. This is our moment to hold our finger in the dike and be history makers.

WHY IFA IS PUBLISHING THIS

Intercessors pray best when they pray informed. A movement that openly seeks to dismantle the constitutional order is now linked, in its own leaked conversations, to a strategy for manufacturing a crisis of legitimacy. A coup has been planned. That demands the praying Church's attention before November 3, not after. Read on.

BACKGROUND, PART 1

The Export Model: Regime Change Abroad

The tools described in the Democracy Files were not invented in 2026. They were built and field-tested overseas, often with American tax dollars, by the same professional class now turning them homeward. Here are a couple places USAid and other agencies actually actively worked to unseat a government.

Serbia — 2000

The Otpor youth movement that helped topple Slobodan Milošević received U.S. money, training, and polling through USAID, NED, and affiliated institutes.

Georgia — 2003

The "Rose Revolution" forced out Eduard Shevardnadze. Otpor-trained activists led the streets, backed by Western-funded civil-society groups.

Ukraine — 2004 · 2014

U.S. funds flowed through NED, USAID, and Freedom House to opposition-aligned groups. In 2013, Victoria Nuland cited more than $5 billion invested in Ukraine's "democratic" development since 1991.

Cuba — 2010–2012

The AP revealed that USAID secretly built "ZunZuneo," a Twitter-style network designed to gather Cuban users, then push messages that could spark unrest.

THE PLAYBOOK, IN FIVE MOVES

1	2	3	4	5
Grade the government as "backsliding"	Fund and train civil society	Mobilize protest around an election	Induce defections in police and army	Transfer legitimacy to the opposition

Several people in this report built careers in this work: Ro Tucci directed USAID's democracy center; Maria Stephan, Erica Chenoweth's co-author and a Horizons Project leader, served at the State Department and USIP; Marcia Mundt came from USAID and USIP. The playbook did not change. Only the target did. Now it is us.

BACKGROUND, PART 1A

Written in Washington, tested in Belgrade, and now aimed at an American president.

In 2000, a student movement called Otpor helped topple Serbia's Slobodan Milošević. An Otpor leader later said 85 percent of its funding came from the United States, through USAID, the National Endowment for Democracy, and the two party institutes. USAID's transition office began working toward that outcome three years before he fell.

Otpor's leaders then exported the method through their training group, CANVAS, to Georgia, Ukraine, Egypt, and beyond. Its lessons were filmed as Bringing Down a Dictator. In 2026, that film was reportedly recommended as a "how-to" by Steven Cash, whose Steady State network of former intelligence officials is a No Kings partner.

THE SAME HANDS

On camera, Cash says many Steady State founders worked the Balkans under President Clinton. They ran America's democracy programs abroad. They know the method because they helped build it.

The No Kings coalition runs on the same math. Its organizers aim for Erica Chenoweth's 3.5 percent threshold, the level of protest that, by her research, topples authoritarian regimes. (see this explained on page

A tool built to remove foreign dictators is now aimed at a president Americans elected.

"What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done."

ECCLESIASTES 1:9

WHY THIS MATTERS

Follow the thread and a pattern appears. Washington spent three years funding a youth movement in Serbia, and the president fell. The method was then exported across Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

Two decades later, Americans who ran those programs formed The Steady State the day after the 2016 election. Today they stand with No Kings, chasing the same 3.5 percent target, while allied networks draft memos telling governors what to do if Washington is declared illegitimate.

DOCUMENTED

BACKGROUND, PART 2

The Domestic Precedent: Crossfire Hurricane

The same instinct, declaring the elected leader illegitimate and then using the institutions to undo the result, was turned on an incoming and sitting President. This is the operation we know about. What is being uncovered here in this Special Report is the operation we didn't know was in the works. It happens with many participating officials at every level. Pray about all those "deep state" actors--they're real.

In July 2016, the CIA received intelligence alleging that the Clinton campaign had approved a plan to tie Donald Trump to Russia. John Brennan briefed President Obama; his notes were declassified in 2020. On July 31, the FBI opened Crossfire Hurricane.

Meanwhile, through Marc Elias's law firm, the Clinton campaign and the DNC were paying Fusion GPS for the Steele dossier. The FEC later fined both for misreporting it. That dossier helped secure four FISA warrants on Trump adviser Carter Page, warrants the Inspector General found contained 17 significant errors and omissions. FBI lawyer Kevin Clinesmith later pleaded guilty to altering an email used to obtain one.

In January 2017, Obama ordered a new intelligence assessment, Comey briefed the President-elect on the dossier, and Michael Flynn was interviewed days into the new term. Two years later, Mueller could not establish any campaign conspiracy with Russia. In 2023, Special Counsel John Durham concluded the FBI had opened a full investigation without actual evidence of collusion, relying on raw, unverified intelligence.

BEYOND THE RUSSIA PROBE

Impeached twice as a sitting President (2019 and 2021).

Indicted four times as the leading candidate (2023).

Arctic Frost: Jack Smith's team obtained phone toll records of eight GOP senators and one House member, and subpoenaed records on hundreds of Republican targets.

THE SAME NAME, TEN YEARS APART

Marc Elias

2016: His firm hired Fusion GPS, maker of the Steele dossier, for the Clinton campaign and DNC.

2026: DataRepublican reports the network behind the Democracy Files is working with him.

SAME PLAYBOOK · 2016 → 2026

The method has not changed in ten years. Only the cast has. In 2016 the label was "Russian asset." In 2026 it is "autocrat." Then the insiders sat in the FBI and CIA. Now they are former USAID officials and retired military leaders. Then the weapons were FISA warrants and a special counsel. Now they are pre-written red lines and governors primed to refuse federal troops. And the goal has grown. In 2016 it was to cripple a President. In 2026 it is to declare the government itself illegitimate.

PRAY ACT

Pray for truth and justice that no agency of our government, at home or abroad, is ever again turned against the people's choice. Amos 5:24

Act: Share this special report with others who may not be aware of the latest findings.

We know what they are capable of. We know what they think of conservative values and voters. The work has not stopped just because they have gone "underground" with their planning and work. They have turned their hatred of our nation and its foundations to actionable plans with dates and red lines. They have built their networks, held their planning calls, softened up the narraitve through news coverage and "peaceful marches." They have challenged in the courts. They have legislated, litigated, and lambasted all who stand for the traditional foundational Constitution. Now, they are making their move. It isn't next year. It is more like NEXT WEEK.

1 What Has Been Uncovered

Four releases in four days, and each one fits another piece into place. More is promised, but this is already enough to raise the flag on a planned coup, and to pray and act against it.

The Archive — OCT 18	Part 1: The Plan — OCT 19	Parts 2–4 — OCT 20–21
DataRepublican announces thousands of transcripts and hundreds of recordings, from leads by @SKDoubleDub33 and @iamlisalogan.	A recorded March 25, 2026 Zoom call. Former USAID official Danielle Reiff speaks of a coming "crisis of legitimacy."	R2T's illegitimacy videos, R2T's strategy memo, and RAD's January "emergency scenarios" drill with 15 groups.

PRAY ACT

Pray for those who have been a part of obtaining and releasing the information shared here. Pray for protection for those who are identified and releasing this data--from Jennica Pounds, (aka DataRepublican on X) to others online, as well as the IFA team who is also revealing this information. Luke 12:2

Act: If you are an online social media participant, consider sharing this data online.

HOW IT WORKS: "SHARED EPISTEMOLOGY"

RELEASED

Few see the whole plan; motives differ, outcomes converge.The most recent meetings put the leaders of 15 groups in one room, planning around the endgame.

1. The Marcher — Thinks the uprising is organic. This also aligns with the socialist "useful idiots."
2. The Governor — Thinks he is defending his state.
3. The Ex-Official — Thinks she is defending "democracy."
4. The Planners — See the whole board.

PART 4: THE JANUARY 15 EMERGENCY DRILL · RELEASED

On January 15, 2026, Renew American Democracy (RAD), the strategy built around the ex-USAID Democracy Renewal Group, convened its coalition for a two-hour planning forum. RAD's own handout states the purpose: preparing for "the emergency scenarios outlined in the strategy: militarization, election meltdown, and any attempt to undermine the peaceful transfer of power (acute Constitutional crisis)." Breakout groups were asked how each scenario would affect their "strategic objective."

This was no fringe gathering. DataRepublican reports participants from 15 organizations, including National Security Leaders for America, Indivisible, Freedom Trainers/Beautiful Trouble, the Federal Workers Alliance for Democracy, Civil Service Strong, Project 2029, Team Democracy and Braver Angels. She also reports a "National Deliberations" working group laying the groundwork for structural reform after the crisis.

The notes urge nonviolence, and that matters. But a coalition does not rehearse a constitutional crisis this carefully unless it expects one, and has already decided what should come after it.

Paul Zeitz, RAD

They rehearsed the crisis before it came.

PRAY

Pray that everyone who joined in good faith will see where this leads and turn away. Proverbs 4:14–15

ACT

Act: Belong to a group named here? Ask its leaders what they agreed to.

IN THEIR OWN NOTES

The militarization working group, which included a former USAID officer, discussed the President invoking the Insurrection Act and asked, "What is the role of the military right now in defending our democracy?" It flagged that "20 states have state defense forces governed by state law and under control of governors," forces Washington cannot federalize. It coached vocabulary: "ICE is not militarization… Perhaps better term is 'occupation.'" And it asked, "Are we already in the Crisis?"

The elections group, made up largely of dialogue and mediation groups, concluded that "given the timeframe right now, persuasion might be more strategic than dialogue," and that "inclusive democracy means all people and not all ideas." Who decides which ideas are excluded? The notes never say. Its action map lists a Brazilian pro-democracy coalition "currently working with" Horizons, and plans to "coalesce international actors." The regime-change export model is now being imported back home.

THIS DID NOT BEGIN LAST WEEK

None of this started with the October leaks. In June 2025, former USAID official Marcia Mundt said she could now turn her USAID assessment tool on the United States. In July, NOTUS reported fired USAID and State officials running "noncooperation" workshops for federal workers. In August, Danielle Reiff told Paul Zeitz and Walt Roberts that DemAID's retreat would use USAID's democracy-assessment method. By November, DataRepublican was asking: at what point does this become treason?

In January 2026, RAD drilled 15 groups on "emergency scenarios": militarization, election meltdown, and an "acute Constitutional crisis." In April, an "R2T core team call" put Roberts, Brendan Halloran, Reiff and Zeitz on one call. In May, Zeitz published his four "red lines" for governors.

This week, documents revealed R2T's strategy: "prepare for the worst," including the Insurrection Act or an "election meltdown," with "structural reform" ready. In July 2026 the network invited foreign veterans of "international community assisted transitions" to advise here. And RADM Mike Smith of NSL4A also leads the Horizons Project's Insurrection Act Working Group.

Each step was public. Almost no one connected them.

PRAY ACT	Pray that what was planned in private will be fully exposed, and that the complete recordings will surface with clarity. Ephesians 5:11 Act: Read the primary sources at the end of this report before you share.

WASHINGTON POST RELEASES A STORY, CONDITIONING CITIZENS

No one has to announce a coup when millions have already been told to expect one from the other side. The groundwork is not secret orders. It is a story, repeated until it feels like fact, so that resistance to lawful authority looks like patriotism when the moment comes. The article in Washington Post (released the same day as the evidence was released about the leftists' coup) reports that about 10 current and former War Department officials who have worked with authoritarian regimes abroad, are advising state governors, election officials and members of Congress in 10 states.

These briefings are actually CONDITIONING, planting the seed that the Trump Administration is an authoritarian regime and operating outside its authority if it attempts to help enforce election integrity. The group that has been conducting the briefings as well as the Washington Post is setting the stage, conditioning low information Americans that unlawful and authoritarian activity will be coming from the Trump Administration and all those seeking to mitigate election interference. This paints the Trump Administration as a threat and that any actions these leftist coup-planners attempt is actually saving our nation instead of dismantling it. Don't be fooled. This is all part of the psy-op.

IT DIDN'T START IN 2025 · DOCUMENTED

Renew to Thrive presents itself as something new. It isn't. Its Substack started out under another name, Thriving Together US, and an archived capture shows the old address now forwards to the new one. The writers are the same people, including Walt Roberts, who co-founded the Inter-Movement Impact Project that launched the Thriving Together US Initiative in late 2024.

By their own account, the whole effort rests on a document from the summer of 2020. Thriving Together: A Springboard for Equitable Recovery and Resilience was a joint project of the CDC Foundation and Well Being Trust, written by more than 100 people and organizations in May and June 2020, in the weeks after George Floyd's death. One of its authors described its aim plainly: to shift America's "unjust capitalism" into an economy organized around thriving together. Its slogan was "All people and places thriving, no exceptions."

Eighteen months later, that slogan was on the cover of a federal plan. The Federal Plan for Equitable Long-Term Recovery and Resilience, dated January 20, 2022, was developed by an interagency workgroup of more than 35 federal departments and agencies and organized around the same seven "vital conditions."

The network behind the released recordings didn't appear out of nowhere. Its framework was written in 2020 and carried into federal policy. Today its organizers describe their own work this way:

"Building the new system amidst the breakdown of the existing system."

PRAY

Pray that hidden roots are brought into the light, and that what God did not plant is uprooted. Matthew 15:13

2 The Plan, Step by Step

RELEASED

As described in the released materials, the strategy climbs in five stages. Each stage supplies the justification for the next.

THE DESIGNED DILEMMA AT STAGE 3

Either way, the crisis moves forward. That is not protest. It is a trap built in advance.

THE RED LINE

The planners call the Red Line the trigger: protests, governors refusing to comply, a government declared illegitimate. But the planners crossed the first red line themselves. A former USAID official admits a "big dividing line between foreign assistance and domestic work" once kept her tools off America. Now, she says, she can "use it for whatever I want." That is the red line of sedition.

WHAT IT WOULD LOOK LIKE

Color revolutions don't arrive with tanks. They arrive as a season of disorder built to force a choice.

The method depends on what trainers call "dilemma actions": mass pressure that leaves authorities only bad options. If officials do nothing, order erodes. If they enforce the law, every arrest is filmed and called repression. Either way, the campaign advances. It is the same trap described at Stage 3.

History shows the cost. Serbia's revolution ended with crowds storming and burning parliament. Ukraine's 2014 uprising left more than 100 dead. Egypt's 2011 revolution brought the Muslim Brotherhood to power, then a military coup two years later. Chaos rarely delivers what its planners promise.

WHAT WE ARE LIKELY TO SEE

Picture the weeks around a close election. Coordinated marches fill downtowns. Small crowds gather at ICE facilities, where one shove becomes a viral video. Arrests mount, many of them planned as civil disobedience.

Governors and attorneys general race to court while federal and state orders collide. Rumors and doctored clips outrun the facts. Employers, schools, and churches are pressed to pick a side.

The worst case is two governments claiming authority at once. Then one death, on either side, can turn protest into something no one controls.

"Seek the welfare of the city... and pray to the LORD on its behalf."
JEREMIAH 29:7

PRAY AND PREPARE

Revolutionaries have long treated crisis as opportunity. Socialist parties, including the Marxist-Leninist PSL, marched in No Kings 3. For them, disorder is not a side effect. It is the opening.

The Church's answer is not fear. Pray daily for the President, governors, police, and Guard. Stay clear of flashpoints. Verify before you share. Be the steadiest people in your town when the noise rises.

Seek truthful news. Deception is the tool of the enemy and of those seeking to overthrow the government. Don't be pulled in. Keep appealing to the Lord in prayer for discernment and wisdom. Follow IFApray.org for continuing information and analysis.

THE INSURRECTION ACT IS NOT EXOTIC

Fifteen presidents have invoked it in some thirty incidents. Defining a lawful response to unrest as the moment the government forfeits legitimacy is a plan to manufacture a constitutional rupture.

1808	Thomas Jefferson, to enforce the Embargo Act.
1957	Dwight Eisenhower, at Little Rock, when Arkansas Governor Orval Faubus defied federal court orders.
1962–63	John F. Kennedy, to integrate the universities of Mississippi and Alabama.
1992	George H. W. Bush, during the Los Angeles riots.

PRAY ACT

Pray for the President and his national-security team: wisdom, restraint, and courage, so every decision is lawful and beyond reproach. 1 Timothy 2:1–2

Act: Invite others to join you in prayer for them daily by name through the election and into 2027.

3 Who Decides What Is "Illegitimate"?

Every revolution needs a pretext, and every pretext needs a definition. This network has spent more than a year writing its definitions in advance. Watch the language they use--it tips their hands of what they are prepared to do next.

> "This is a strongman's coup, unfolding in real time.

DOCUMENTED

ZEITZ'S FOUR RED LINES · MAY 18, 2026

DOCUMENTED

On May 18, 2026, Paul Zeitz published an open letter to the nation's governors setting out four "red lines": interference with free elections, use of the Insurrection Act against Americans, circumventing the 22nd Amendment, and refusing to seat a lawfully elected Congress. Look closely at the second one. The Insurrection Act is federal law, invoked by 15 presidents across two centuries. Here it is recast, in advance, as a trigger for resistance.

THE R2T ILLEGITIMACY CRITERIA, IN PLAIN ENGLISH

RELEASED

The R2T criteria go further. In DataRepublican's plain-English reading of the October 20 release, the federal government is declared illegitimate if it investigates election fraud, delays seating a disputed member of Congress, sees Republicans win "too many" elections, acts against activist judges, or acts against "peaceful" protesters. Every item on that list is something a lawful government is permitted to do.

DataRepublican's plain-English translation of the criteria in the October 20 release. IFA will publish the original wording when the full documents are available.

Lawful acts are being pre-labeled as tyranny. When one side reserves the right to decide when the other side's lawful governance stops counting, the ballot box no longer settles anything.

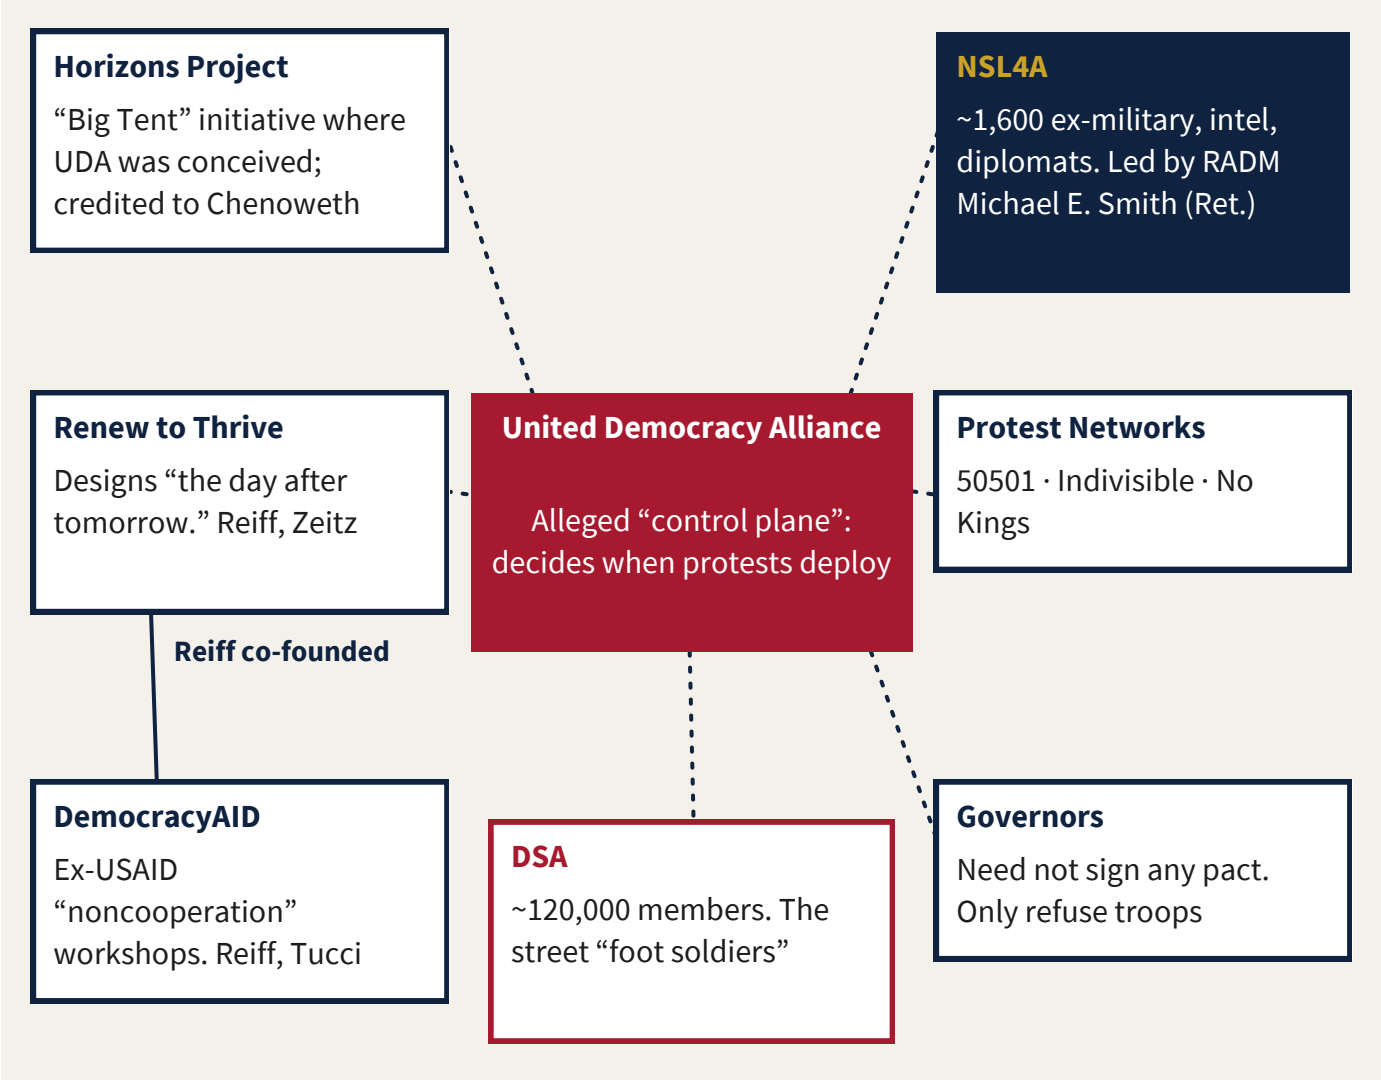

PRAY ACT

Pray that Americans will not be deceived by redefined words, and that "democracy" will not become a banner for overturning the constitutional order. Isaiah 5:20

Act: When you hear "illegitimate," ask: Who decided? By what law? Through what process?

4 The Architecture

The released materials describe a layered structure. Some parts are public organizations with named leaders. The center, by design, has almost no public footprint.

RELEASED

Also claimed: the network is working with Democratic election lawyer Marc Elias (DataRepublican, Oct 18; confirmed by SKDoubleDub33). In 2016, Elias's firm hired Fusion GPS, the firm behind the Steele dossier.

Pause on one detail. The body credited with operationalizing a domestic protest network is an organization of former generals, admirals, intelligence officers, and diplomats, joined to a framework built by a scholar of how civilian movements topple governments. Its founder reportedly appears on calls running Insurrection Act exercises. Americans should ask why.

PRAY ACT

Pray that every hidden coordinating structure is exposed, and that those who know the full picture come forward. Psalm 33:10

Act: Pray for investigators, journalists, and congressional overseers to pursue the facts with courage.

5 The Regime-Change Pros Come Home

For decades USAID ran democracy programs overseas. When it closed in 2025, the people who did that work turned their skills toward their own government.

THEN: ABROAD		NOW: HOME

NSL4A'S MIDTERM PLAYBOOK

Retired military leaders are rehearsing how to resist federal orders they admit may look lawful.

On October 14, Rear Adm. Mike Smith (Ret.), founder of National Security Leaders for America, walked a Zoom audience through a toolkit called "Managing Military Intervention in the Midterms." His group had already run a tabletop exercise in Washington on September 1 and is standing up a midterm "war room."

Their scenarios are telling: a President invoking the Insurrection Act after unrest over ICE actions, or citing intelligence of hacked voting machines. Their own slide concedes that in both cases, troops "would, at first, appear to be acting under lawful orders."

THE NEXT MOVE

On September 14, NSL4A publicly urged state attorneys general to have emergency lawsuits ready to block federal deployments. It did so even after Gen. Dan Caine, chairman of the Joint Chiefs, said on August 31 that the military has no plans to deploy forces to polling places.

NSL4A calls itself nonpartisan. In 2024, it endorsed Kamala Harris with 741 signatures.

"Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain."

PSALM 127:1

PRAY AND ACT

The toolkit urges nonviolence and court challenges, and that matters. But it scripts senators to dispute the President's intelligence and readies officials to oppose federal action before any order exists.

Pray for the President, the Guard, and every election official to act lawfully and wisely. Psalm 46:9

If you live in Alaska, Georgia, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, North Carolina, Ohio, or Texas, ask your local election officials whether they received NSL4A's toolkit.

WHAT THE RESEARCHERS REPORT

RELEASED

The planning began almost immediately. Signal groups formed within days of the 2024 election, and former USAID staff moved off government systems before Inauguration Day. In DemocracyAID workshops, participants passed around the WWII-era Simple Sabotage Field Manual, a guide to slowing and undermining an organization from the inside. Former USAID and USIP official Marcia Mundt says she now applies the Democracy Assessment Tool, once used to decide where to intervene abroad, to the United States. And Danielle Reiff describes the 22nd Century Initiative and the American Democracy Summit as meeting points where overseas democracy professionals and domestic "blocking" groups such as the Horizons Project come together.

These professionals spent careers grading foreign governments and deciding when they had lost legitimacy. They are now applying the same framework to the United States, and, in their own recorded words, talking about a coming crisis of legitimacy and a plan.

PRAY

ACT

Pray for every public servant to honor his or her oath, for repentance where sabotage was planned, and for protection of faithful civil servants. Proverbs 24:21

Act: Ask your members of Congress whether oversight committees are examining organized "noncooperation." You can call your elected official at the Congressional switchboard at 202-224-3121.

THE STEADY STATE

The day after the 2016 election, former intelligence officials organized against the man voters chose.

Steven Cash, a former CIA officer, leads The Steady State. On camera he explains that the group labeled President Trump an “existential threat” for stepping outside the accepted “framework.” When Biden won, the group went quiet and Cash took a senior DHS intelligence post. When Trump returned, “the existential threat was back.”

Today the network claims more than 450 former officials. It formally partnered with No Kings, and Cash says he attended a protest planning meeting. In a 2025 Supreme Court brief, the group wrote that “the fact that President Trump was duly elected is no answer.”

A FAMILIAR CIRCLE

This is not the first time these credentials have been aimed at an election. Member Marc Polymeropoulos co-wrote the 2020 letter from 51 former intelligence officials casting the Hunter Biden laptop as Russian disinformation.

A House report later found the letter was coordinated with the Biden campaign, and that some of its “former” officials were still on CIA contract when they signed.

“For nothing is hidden that will not be made manifest.”

LUKE 8:17

FOLLOW THE MONEY

Cash, once chief of staff for intelligence at the Energy Department, founded Deck Prism LLC. The company holds active Energy Department orders, one funded from the NNSA’s nuclear weapons account and another sole-sourced under the national-security exception, with a potential value of $234.7 million. Whether he still owns it is unconfirmed.

The leader of a No Kings partner, paid through an administration led by the man he calls an existential threat.

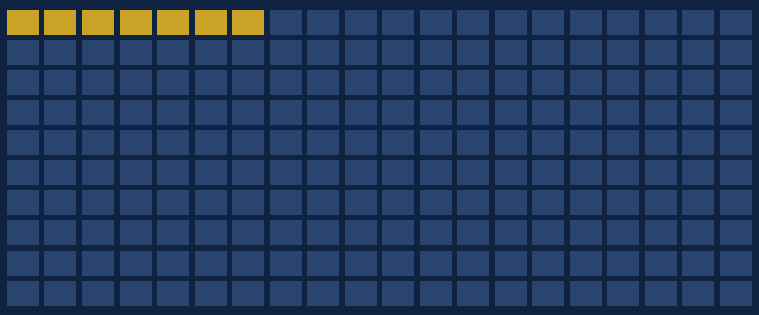

Pray: Psalm 94:20.
Act: Ask Congress to review sole-source contracts held by partisan organizers.

6 The Intellectual Blueprint

3.5%

The "3.5 percent rule" of Harvard's Erica Chenoweth (I): in her data, no government survived a nonviolent campaign that mobilized 3.5% of the population.

Each square = 0.5% of Americans. 3.5% is roughly 12 million people.

Erica Chenoweth's role in UDA comes from the released files. But her strategy for the United States is public. In October 2022, she and Zoe Marks published a Harvard Kennedy School paper, commissioned by Social and Economic Justice Leaders, preparing for a possible "authoritarian transition" after the 2024 election. This theory is described as the tipping point for using campaigns to overtake a government.

Convene strategic-planning summits	22nd Century Initiative and American Democracy Summit

In the paper, “the autocrat” is the man Americans elected President. The paper describes nonviolent strategy. The danger is what happens when it is joined to a deliberate escalation toward a federal crisis. The situation will not remain static after a government is declared non-legitimate.

PRAY ACT

Pray for every governor and member of Congress to keep the oath and refuse any role in a manufactured confrontation. Romans 13:1

Act: Ask your governor: In a crisis, will you uphold federal law, or a pre-arranged red line? Then vote on November 3.

THE AUGUST 13 CALL

They planned what governors should do once Washington is declared illegitimate.

Dr. Paul Zeitz of Renew American Democracy convened the call. Danielle Reiff described an "acute legitimacy crisis," with the federal government widely viewed as illegitimate. The group had already drafted an options memo for governors. Zeitz's logic: if red lines are crossed, the governors become the governing authority.

Former State Department official John Mongan pitched a Third Continental Congress convened by governors. He says he took it to Massachusetts, California, and Illinois; two showed interest if another state led. His triggers: members not seated in early 2027, or a 2029 president deemed to lack constitutional authority.

WHO DECIDES?

No one on that call holds elected office. Yet they wrote the triggers, the metrics, and the governors' playbook before a single vote was cast.

Participants insist the idea is "not secession." But a plan that hands power to governors the moment a private network declares Washington illegitimate does not defend the Constitution. It replaces the Constitution's judgment with theirs.

"Let every person be subject to the governing authorities."

ROMANS 13:1

PRAY AND ACT

Pray that governors refuse any part in a pre-scripted rupture and honor the Constitution as the supreme law of the land. Proverbs 21:1

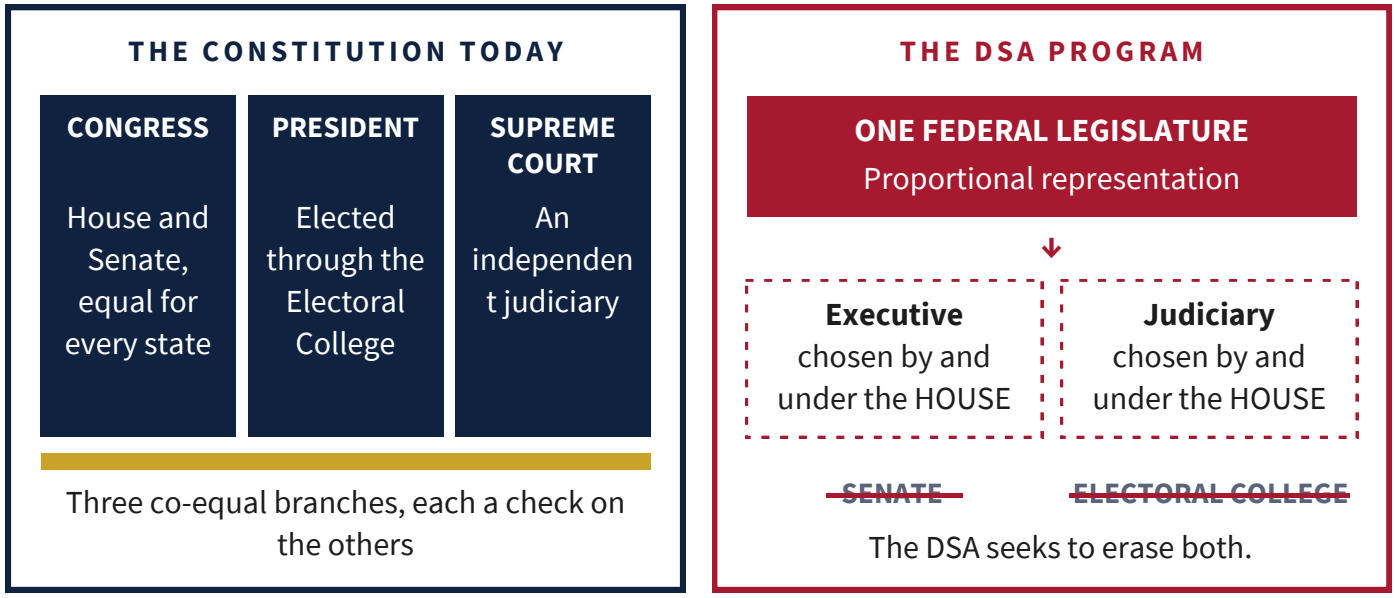

Ask your governor's office directly: Have you received a legitimacy-crisis or "Third Continental Congress" memo? Will you publicly reject it?

8 The Endgame Is in Writing

DOCUMENTED

This part needs no leak. In June 2026, DSA, now about 120,000 members strong, adopted its official program, Workers Deserve More. Its preamble pledges to "draft a new constitution, and create a democratic socialist republic."

2023: Young DSA urged the party to "take up a stance of opposition to the Constitution."

Oct 7, 2026: Democratic Left publishes "DSA Is Right: We Need a New Constitution."

Now: A DSA-backed mayor governs New York City, and DSA-aligned candidates have won safe House primaries.

WHY THEY NEED A CRISIS: THE ARTICLE V WALL

of both houses of Congress to propose

38 of 50
states to ratify

Every state
must consent to lose its equal Senate vote

When a goal cannot pass through the Constitution, the only path left is around it. That is why the movement talks about a constituent assembly outside Article V, and why it needs a moment when the government can be declared illegitimate. This is all part of the master plan to lay an ax to our current form of government in one movement. This isn't years in the future. This is NOW.

PRAY ACT

Pray for the preservation of the separation of powers, which guards Americans from concentrated, unchecked human power. Proverbs 22:28

Act: Read Article V and the DSA program side by side. Teach your church why the Founders divided power.

9 Connecting the Dots

It started on paper. In October 2022, a Harvard Kennedy School paper by Erica Chenoweth and Zoe Marks laid out a plan: build a united left front and force "defections" from the pillars that hold up a government.

Within days of the 2024 election, Signal groups formed and new organizations launched with undisclosed donors. Through 2025, former USAID officials trained federal workers in "noncooperation," and Paul Zeitz began calling the new administration a coup.

By spring 2026 the language had sharpened. A March call warned of a coming "crisis of legitimacy." In May, Zeitz published his red lines, and DSA adopted a program to write a new constitution. In October, socialist writers urged holding the Speakership hostage.

Then the recordings surfaced, and the pieces fit. The next step is not a document. It is a date.

NOV 3, 2026
Midterm election: Stage One.

EACH HOLDS ONE PIECE

A scholar writes the strategy.

Former officials bring the regime-change toolkit.

Retired commanders run the scenarios.

Protest networks supply the numbers.

Governors supply the defiance.

A socialist movement supplies the foot soldiers and the new constitution.

Each can say, truthfully, that it only did its part. But that is part of the grand deception. What they learned by executing regime change and color revolutions in other countries has given them the blueprint to execute it in our own country.

STAGE 2 IN THE REAL WORLD

DOCUMENTED

Paris is a Preview

Stage 2 calls for activists in constant confrontation with the government. France shows what that looks like. Reported as a student revolt over school funding, October's unrest was driven largely by adult-led groups: Fox News Digital identified 54 organizations, only 16 of them student or youth groups, alongside communist parties, unions, and revolutionary activists.

Among the international amplifiers is a network funded by Neville Roy Singham, a Marxist tech billionaire living in Shanghai. Its American arms, including the People's Forum, the Party for Socialism and Liberation, the ANSWER Coalition, and CodePink, rallied members into the No Kings mobilizations. Singham's wife, CodePink co-founder Jodie Evans, has pointed to the riots in France as an example for protests planned in Washington. Twenty-eight socialist and communist youth groups across Europe have called a coordinated strike for November 20. Singham's network is under congressional investigation and a federal grand jury inquiry.

No released document yet ties Singham to UDA. It does not need to. The infrastructure for French-style street confrontation already exists here, it is already inside the coalition that turns out millions, and its leaders are telling us France is the model.

The "burn it down" strategy is not only part of the Islamic strategy of conquest which we are seeing in Paris, but also part of the strategy repeatedly used by Marxists groups. What we see happening in Paris isn't within the borders of Europe. Marxists everywhere follow the same playbook. Chaos creates opportunity. You can't remake government without dismantling it, no matter how messy that gets. As Rahm Emmanuel so famously quoted, "Never let a crisis go to waste." Marxist and Islamic tactics go hand in hand.

France network, Singham funding, and probes: DOCUMENTED. UDA's coordination of No Kings: RELEASED.

WHAT YOU WILL HEAR, AND HOW TO ANSWER IT

Share this report and you will hear pushback. Most of it will sound reasonable. Answer it with the record, not with heat.

"It's just contingency planning against a lawless President." Contingency planning prepares to defend the law. This network pre-labels lawful acts, like investigating election fraud or invoking a statute 15 presidents have used, as proof of illegitimacy. It seeks advice from veterans of foreign "transitions." And its foot soldiers have already written the replacement: a new constitution.

"Governors have every right to refuse federal troops." Governors may challenge federal orders in court. They may not nullify federal law. Article VI makes the Constitution supreme, and Little Rock settled what happens when a governor defies it. A refusal coordinated in advance and branded "legitimate" is not federalism. It is secession by another name.

"Peaceful protest is protected by the First Amendment." Yes, and Christians should defend it. But the released plan uses protest as a lever: escalate unrest until the President must either let order collapse or act, then declare his lawful response illegitimate. That is not protest. It is a trap built in advance.

"It all rests on one researcher's leaks." The destination does not. DSA's new-constitution program, Zeitz's red lines, the Chenoweth–Marks paper, the ex-USAID workshops, and GSD's undisclosed donors are all public. The Washington Post now reports ex-officials quietly advising states. The leaks add the operating plan, in the participants' own voices. There are many different source material revealed.

"This is a right-wing conspiracy theory." A conspiracy theory explains events with hidden actors and no evidence. This report names its sources, labels every claim, and quotes the participants' own published words. Do not take our word for it. Read theirs.

PRAY
ACT

Pray: Pray for courage to speak and grace in how we speak, so that truth is heard rather than dismissed. Colossians 4:6

Act: Walk through these answers with your prayer group, so each of you is ready to give a reason for the hope that is in you (1 Peter 3:15).

STAGE 2 HERE AT HOME · DOCUMENTED

For DC's June primary, Free DC prepared intersection blockades, a march on the Capitol, and "no work, no school, no shopping" if results were contested. It pledged to "enforce our election results." On October 22 it holds a screened, location-withheld training with protest role-play. Its fiscal host is backed by Soros's Open Society Policy Center and Melinda French Gates's Pivotal Ventures.

THE BATTLE BEHIND THE BATTLE

It would be easy to read this report as a fight between two parties or two ideologies. It isn't. Underneath the politics is a spiritual battle, and Scripture names it.

"For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places." Ephesians 6:12

An old playbook. Former KGB officer Yuri Bezmenov described the Marxist way to overturn a nation in four steps. We are watching all four: demoralization (years of telling Americans the system is broken), destabilization (red lines that recast lawful acts as tyranny), crisis (a confrontation after the midterms), and normalization (a new order sold as the only way forward). We know where it ends. IFA has been teaching this to intercessors at Gatekeepers Conferences and in our Special Reports.

The spirit at the root of Marxism is a counterfeit religion. Early Marxist Joseph Dietzgen called socialism a "new gospel," trading grace for revolutionary works and setting the state where God belongs. Saul Alinsky opened Rules for Radicals with a nod to Lucifer as the first radical. This is the antichrist spirit, which "denies the Father and the Son" (1 John 2:22).

What the founders knew. Man is fallen and self-serving, so the founders put power under God and divided it. As Madison wrote, "If men were angels, no government would be necessary." Our system was built to restrain sin. The system of checks and balances and seperation of powers was created to avert just what the seditionists are proposing today.

Where they want to take us? DSA's own program would abolish the Senate, replace the President and Supreme Court with officials chosen by and subordinate to a single legislature (the House), and put the largest industries under public ownership. Remove every restraint, hand fallen men unchecked power, and sin runs out of control. This is "Government is God," written into a constitution.

Who is best equipped to battle a demonically-fueled coup and movement but a praying and spirit-led and powered people? That's us. God has given us authority and the power to use it for His purposes. It is up to us to apprehend plans of the Enemy and cast them down. It is the piece that a non-spiritual person cannot see or affect.

PRAY	Pray first, not last: that God would expose the spirit behind this plan and tear down its strongholds. 2 Corinthians 10:4
ACT	Act: Like the sons of Issachar, who "had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do" (1 Chronicles 12:32), see clearly, pray first, then act.

Putting Action to Your Prayer

1. Vote on November 3. Stage One runs through the ballot box. So does the answer. An overwhelming victory by conservatives will be harder to overcome.
2. Contact your governor. Ask whether he or she will uphold federal law and the Constitution in a crisis.
3. Contact Congress. Ask for oversight hearings on organized noncooperation and on who funds UDA, R2T, and GSD.

4. Read the primary sources. The DSA program, the Zeitz essays, and the Chenoweth–Marks paper are public.

5. Teach your church and small group. Use this report in a prayer meeting. Walk through Article V.

6. Join in a fast for our nation. God gave us the discipline of fasting to supercharge our prayer. Even Jesus used it!

7. Pray over your city and state. Pray for peace in your city and be ready to serve your neighbors. IFA has a prayer guide to pray peace in your city. Click here https://ifapray.org/praying-for-spiritual-protection-over-cities/

8. Return to IFApray.org for updates as new Democracy Files are released.

A WORD TO INTERCESSORS

"Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. — Isaiah 8:12–13

For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether good or evil. — Ecclesiastes 12:14

The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth. —Psalm 145:18

God calls us to watch, pray, speak truth, and stand, never to answer lawlessness with lawlessness. Any Christian tempted toward pre-emptive violence in response to this report has misread it.

PULLING DOWN STRONGHOLDS: A PRAYER STRATEGY

The Red Line documents a human plan. Scripture tells us the deeper battle is fought in another realm: "We do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places" (Ephesians 6:12). We come as intercessors, not partisans. The people named in this report are not our enemy; they are souls Christ died for. We stand against the powers using them, and we pray from a place of victory.

Discern the strongholds. Psalm 2 describes this plan: the rulers "take counsel together, against the LORD and against his Anointed, saying, 'Let us burst their bonds apart and cast away their cords from us.'" A constitution that places government under God and limits its power is such a cord. Behind the effort to cast it off stand the anti-Christ spirit that puts government on God's throne (1 John 4:3), lawlessness that throws off lawful order (2 Thessalonians 2:7), deception that calls lawful acts tyranny (Isaiah 5:20), fear that conditions people for crisis (2 Timothy 1:7), and division that sets state against nation (Mark 3:24).

How strongholds fall. Derek Prince, one of IFA's founders, taught that strongholds are built from ideas. Our weapons "have divine power to destroy strongholds," including "arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God" (2 Corinthians 10:4–5). We bind the strong man before we plunder his house (Matthew 12:29). We tear down our own high places first. And because good government is God's will (1 Timothy 2:1–4), we pray for it first, with fasting.

Pray in this order, alone or with your group.

1. Humble ourselves. Repent of passivity, fear, and trusting politics over God (2 Chronicles 7:14).
2. Take our place, seated with Christ far above all rule and authority (Ephesians 1:21; 2:6).
3. In Jesus' name, bind the anti-Christ spirit, lawlessness, deception, fear, and division.
4. Ask God to expose the lie of illegitimacy and bring hidden plans to light (Luke 8:17).
5. Proclaim: "The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing" (Psalm 33:10).
6. Pray for the President, Congress, governors, courts, and Guard, and an honest election Nov. 3.
7. Pray for those involved, that they turn "from darkness to light" (Acts 26:18).

PRAY
ACT

PRAY: Father, bring the plotters' counsel to nothing. We overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony. Revelation 12:11

ACT: Join IFA to fast from October 26 at sundown until sundown October 29. "We prayed to our God and set a guard" (Nehemiah 4:9).

THE BATTLE BEHIND THE PLAN

Daniel learned how this war is fought. His answer was delayed twenty-one days because "the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood" the messenger sent to him (Daniel 10:13). Nations have spiritual rulers behind earthly ones, and the outcome turned on a man who kept praying. We pray from victory: Christ "disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him" (Colossians 2:15).

Six strongholds, and where they show in The Red Line:

The anti-Christ spirit (1 John 4:3) puts man and the state on the throne that belongs to God. It shows in a new constitution with no authority above the state: "Government is God."
Lawlessness and rebellion (2 Thessalonians 2:7; 1 Samuel 15:23) throw off lawful restraint. They show in declaring the elected government illegitimate and governors refusing federal law.
Deception (John 8:44; Isaiah 5:20) calls evil good and good evil. It shows in lawful acts pre-labeled as tyranny before they happen.
Fear and intimidation (2 Timothy 1:7) paralyze the Church and stampede the public. They show in "prepare for the worst" messaging that conditions people for crisis.
Division (Mark 3:24–25) sets house against house. It shows in states set against the federal government and Americans against each other.
Idolatry of the state trusts government as savior and provider. It shows in Marxism's promise that the state will deliver what only God can.

How strongholds fall.

DerekPrince,one ofIFA's founders in 1973, taught that every believer is born into a war between two kingdoms. Four of his principles shape how we pray.

Strongholds are built from ideas. Our weapons "have divine power to destroy strongholds," including "arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God" (2 Corinthians 10:4–5). Marxism is that kind of stronghold: a system of arguments raised against God. It falls when truth is spoken in prayer and in public.

Bind the strong man first. No one can plunder a strong man's house without first binding him (Matthew 12:29). Prince applied this to nations as well as individuals. We use the authority Christ gave us (Matthew 18:18; Luke 10:19) before we expect change on the ground.

Tear down our own high places. Idolatry in God's people leaves them vulnerable. Before we confront the anti-Christ spirit in the nation, we repent of trusting politics, parties, or personalities more than God.

Pray first for government, and fast. From 1 Timothy 2:1–4 Prince taught that the Church's first public ministry is prayer, and its first topic is government, because good government is the will of God. In Shaping History Through Prayer and Fasting he shows how fasting prayer turned events in WWII North Africa and at the end of the Stalin era.

PRAY TOGETHER

Father, You sit in the heavens, and You are not threatened by the counsel of men. We humble ourselves and turn from every way we have trusted man more than You. Cleanse Your Church and make us ready.

We take our place in Christ, seated far above all rule and authority. In the name of Jesus, we bind the anti-Christ spirit that seeks to put the state on Your throne. We bind lawlessness, rebellion, deception, fear, and division over America. We tear down every argument raised against the knowledge of God, and we refuse every lie that calls Your order tyranny.

Lord, bring the counsel of the plotters to nothing. Expose what is hidden. Give our President, Congress, governors, courts, and those who wear the uniform wisdom and courage to act lawfully. Guard the election on November 3 and grant us a peaceful land in which the gospel runs freely. Open the eyes of those caught up in this plan, and turn them from darkness to light. We overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony (Revelation 12:11). In Jesus' name, amen.

Fast and persevere. Join IFA to fast from October 26 at sundown until sundown October 29. Daniel's breakthrough came after twenty-one days, so keep praying past the first answer (Esther 4:16; Daniel 10:12–13).

Watch and act. Nehemiah's builders "prayed to our God and set a guard as a protection against them day and night" (Nehemiah 4:9). Pray, then vote, call your governor, and speak the truth.

PRAY ACT

Declare: The LORD reigns over America. The cords of His order will not be broken. The counsel of the nations comes to nothing, and the counsel of the LORD stands forever. Psalm 2:4; 33:10–11

Act: Pray this together with your group before November 3, and share this guide with others who pray.
